

LAST THING ON YOUR MIND (Lebbink)

verse

Never knew that you were only faking
Always thought that we did have a deal
And all the faint excuses you were making Taught me what was wrong, but oh so real

refrain

Your pretty eyes couldn't realize I wasn't blind
And a trace of doubt was never on your face
You were oh so likable whenever I was not around
I must have been the last thing on your mind

verse

You thought I didn't know where you were going What kind of a fool do you think I really am?
Imagining the men whose mind you're blowing Did you really hope that I would understand?

refrain

Your pretty eyes didn't realize I wasn't blind
And a trace of doubt was never on your face
You were oh so likable whenever I was not around

solos

verse

And now the end is near as Frank is singing You're lying very comfy on your back Instead of all the joy this could be bringing You feel my loving hands so tight around your neck

refrain

Those pretty eyes now realize I wasn't blind
But your regret just comes a bit too late You're unforgivable, but 'shush' don't make a sound
I'm pretty sure I'm the last thing on your mind
